

Insurance

We're a data and analytics firm obsessed with your policyholder experience. We are driven to turn data into powerful strategies that will deliver more relevant marketing and sales efforts to grow your acquisition efforts—and provide a lift to your marketing results.

Headquartered in Rochester, NY with a Boston office, we've worked with leading Insurance Marketers since 1985. Our team of dedicated Data Scientists, Marketing Operations experts and Marketing Strategy pros love to solve the gnarly problems of both Direct and Affinity Insurance marketers: How to integrate digital with the same precision as direct mail. How to manage data to support personalization across channels. How to measure attribution and lift to increase profitability. How to create a marketing machine that keeps running at the speed of change. Give us a call to find out how we do it at 585-242-4113 or visit us at www.sigmamarketing.com
